

NATIONWIDE EXTENDED TIRE PROTECTION PLAN

Even the most cautious driver can encounter potholes, curbs, and road debris everywhere and inevitably one of those unforeseen road hazards can leave you with a tire in need of repair or worse replacement.

WHAT IS COVERED BY THE EXTENDED TIRE PROTECTION PLAN

The Extended Tire Protection plan is valid for 5-years from date of purchase on tires that become unserviceable or damaged from a cut, snag, bruise, impact, sidewall damage, or puncture caused by a road hazard. Ground shipping charges to recover (if necessary) and replace tire(s), is covered. Tires will be prorated after 15 months according to tread wear used. Product will be replaced at the discretion of Coker Tire with the same product or in some cases a similar product, if the same product is not available. If you want the Extended Tire Protection plan on the replacement tire, you must purchase it.

EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

Proper tire care is required to obtain the maximum service life from a tire. Tires will be prorated after 15 months according to tread wear used. Some limits of liability, exclusions, and owner obligations apply. The Extended Tire Protection plan covers any tire meeting the conditions set forth that becomes unserviceable or incurs damage due to an impact, road debris, pothole or other damage caused by a road hazard and not listed under exclusions. Product will be repaired or replaced at the discretion of Coker Tire with the same product or in some cases a similar product, if the same product is not available. As part of this, Coker Tire will pay ground shipping charges to recover and replace tire(s) if necessary. Not all claims require returning the damaged tire. This is not a warranty. Coker Tire makes no representations that your tire cannot fail or become unserviceable. Coker Tire's only liability is to repair or replace the product. Coker Tire is not responsible for mounting, balancing or any other incidental or consequential damages. Damage of any kind caused by the following is not covered: Fire, theft, vandalism, abuse, collision, claims covered by insurance policy, defect of the vehicle, tire chains, misalignment, improper installation or mounting, commercial use, normal aging or other non-road hazard sources. No expressed guarantees given other than stated herein.

Plan is administered by Coker Tire Company, 1317 Chestnut Street
